Office of the Deputy Commissioner,

No. 59-20 Estate Dated, Hassan, the 8th August 1923.

From

K. Vyla[illegible]ao, Esq., B.A.,

Deputy Commissioner,

Hassan District.

To

[illegible] Jayarama Iyer, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that at present there are only four Dharmadarsis for the major temple of Sri Venkataramana Swamy at Malekal Tirupathi, Arsikere Taluk, out of five, the other Dharmadarsi having died a few days back. Both the Taluk and the Sub Division Officer report that the minimum number of Dharmadarsis prescribed for a major institution viz., 9, is absolutely necessary for this temple and have recommended nine persons for appointment as Dharmadarsis to the temple with a view to the accomplishment of the object. The date of the appointment of the proposed Dharmadarsis is reported to be not available.

2. As all the persons recommended are reported to be influential and evincing keen interest in charitable matters, I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for their appointments as Dharmadarsis and to kindly cause the names to be published in the Mysore Gazette.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

K Vyla Rao

Deputy Commissioner,

Hassan District.

ROUTINE NOTES.

The D.Y. adds in his letter that in case it is still considered that it is not desirable to have No. 8 as a Dhammadarsi of the instn, another gentleman by name Rangajiya alias Papajiya who is a VeKKaliga by caste may be appointed in his stead.

Invited for orders with regd to the 1st Member's queries on page 1 of the notes. (reverse of sl. 1 in the file below).

MRR.
20.2.23. Gangasowda thera Devajaya is said to take interest in the temple. In this case it does not seem to be desirable to dispense with him from the list of Dhammadarsis. Should he be retained in the list? If so, Regr. with Sub: maybe app?

From

K. Mylar Rao, Esq., M.A., B.L.,

Deputy Commissioner,

To

Huzrai Commissioner in Mysore,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

Adverting to the Revenue Secretary's letter No.1045/Huz. 93-22-2 dated the 30th August 1922, received with your memo No. N.Dis.34-22 dated the 6th September 1922 calling for certain particulars with regard to the persons proposed to be appointed as Dharmadarsis for the management of the Sri Venkataramana Swami temple at Malekal Tirupathi, Arsikere Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Arsikere Taluk reports that the gentlemen Nos 1 to 5 in the list are all Karnatakas and related to each other and that their names have been proposed as they are evincing a keen interest in the temple affairs. As regards No. 8 in the list, the Amildar reports that though the gentleman is a Lingayat by caste, yet he is also rendering great help with regard to temple affairs.

2. As all the persons proposed in the enclosed list are reported to be taking great interest in the temple affairs, I am of opinion that all of them may be appointed as Dharmadarsis. If it is still considered that it is not desirable to have Mr. Gangegowda as a Dharmadarsi for the institution, the marginally noted gentleman who is also reported to be influential may be appointed in his stead.
